

Common symptoms of gas contamination in scuba breathing gas (air and mixtures)

- Unconsciousness
- Confusion
- Impaired judgment
- Headache
- Dizziness
- Drowsiness
- Weakness
- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Hyperventilation
- Shortness of breath
- Impaired respiratory function
- Chest pain
- Irregular or weak heartbeat

For the specific symptoms related to each contaminant, see:
Breathing Gas Contamination \(DAN Health & Diving Reference Series Spring 2015\)

